

Bridges To Reading: What To Do When You Suspect Your Child Has A Reading Problem

DYSLEXIA 411

October is dyslexia awareness month #DYSLEXIA411 No. 17

What do you do if you suspect your child has dyslexia?

- Don't wait for your child to fail to act
- Don't accept "let's wait and see"
- Have your child evaluated, specifying testing for dyslexia
- Know that there is more than one way to teach a child to read
- Find out the method your school is using to teach reading and why it's not working for your child
- Learn more about dyslexia and your rights
- Be a champion for your child and have patience
